

Chequamegon-Nicolet National Forest

ENBRIDGE ENERGY LIMITED PARTNERSHIP SPECIAL USE PERMIT

Welcome to the Open House (July 27, 2017 from 5 pm to 8 pm) to learn more about Enbridge's request to re-authorize a special use permit on Forest Service Land.

- Learn more about the proposal to re-authorize a special use permit to Enbridge for the continued operation and maintenance of an existing pipeline, pumping station, and right-of-way across National Forest Service lands
- Meet with specialists from the Forest Service, Enbridge, and Department of Transportation Pipeline and Hazardous Materials Safety Administration. Specialist are available to provide information and answer questions

Location and Description of Information Booths: Information areas are located on the first floor. Since this is after regular business hours, the second floor, exhibit hall, and observation tower will not be open during the event.

Location	Agency	Information
Martin Hanson Theatre	Forest Service	Introductory Video
Multi-Purpose Room	Enbridge	Information tables focusing on the environment, pipeline integrity and emergency response
Whittlesey Room (Back area to the right of the Elevator)	Department of Transportation Pipeline and Hazardous Materials Safety Administration	Information on the role of DOT in pipeline safety
Counter Area	Forest Service	Information on environmental review and special use process
Back Area Near the Elevator	Forest Service	Information on how to and opportunity to submit comments
Outdoors	Enbridge	Emergency response equipment

For more Information Visit: <https://go.usa.gov/xNz6X> or QR reader code.

